The Democratic State committee soon bardoned its rooms to-night and gave out to tatements. Chairman Salen was in Cleviland with Mayor Johnson, John H. Clarke, the Democratic candidate for senator, and other Democratic candidates. Secretary Richardson was the only one here and he left Democratic headquarters before se could be asked for the causes of the un-expected result. Chairman Dick, of the Republican committee, said the result was due to the "remarkable personality of Hanna, popularity of Herrick and indorsement sevelt and the State administration' and that these conditions brought about harmony among Republicans, while the Depocrats were divided into factions and especially "one great faction that repudiaton Johnson."

In his bulletins Chairman Dick used what termed "diplomatic language" in saying that "Herrick would have a larger plurall y than any other Governor of Ohio."

Mr. McClelian was attacked by the speakers for the Fusionists because, they alleged, he had sold the name his father honored to cloak the designs of evil men. To these statements the Democrats responded with the charge that Low's nonpartisan claims masked an attempt to secure control of the city in the interest of Governor Odell; that all of the credit for the good business administration under Low belonged to Grout, was on the Democratic ticket, and that every Democrat should cast his ballot | it an appropriation of $101,000,000. for McClellan in view of the important bearing this city's vote would have on the presidential election next year. posed the mayor's renomination on ground that he was unpopular, but who, after the nominating convention, made frequent speeches for the Fusion ticket. For McClellan Bourke Cockran returned to political activity and made several speeches. Scarcely second in interest to the defeat of Low is the effect of the result of the vote on the fortunes of the octogenarian, Hugh McLaughlin, who for more than a quarter of a century had been the undisputed leader of the Kings county Democracy and who now finds that his former lieutenant, McCarren, was so able to manage McClellan's candidacy that a Democratic plurality resulted in spite of Mc-Laughlin's spirited opposition. DOWIE'S HOST RETURNS

EIGHT SPECIAL TRAINS CONVEY ZIONISTS TO CHICAGO.

New York Crusade, According to Those Who Made the Trip, Was "Wonderfully Successful."

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.-Weary and travelstained, John Alexander Dowie's restoration host to-day returned to Zion City from New York. It was near midnight before the last of the eight special trains bearing the returning followers of Dowie reached home. The return of the host was made the occasion for a holiday in Zion City, and as each train reached its destination the travelers were given a rousing welcome by the members of the colony who had remained at home. The New York crusade, according to those who made the trip, was "wonderfully successful." Not a word of discontent was heard from any one, all having nothing but words of praise for Dowie and the course he had pursued while in New York.

FURNISHED "POOR" HUSBANDS

And Labeled Them Millionaires and Now Finds Himself in Trouble. New York Herald.

Investigation is being made by District Attorney Jerome of the matrimonial brokerage business conducted by Charles R. Van Tascher, who was arrested yesterday afternoon in his office, at No. 140 Nassau street, on a charge of having obtained $500 under false pretenses from John Clinger, of No. 20 St. Mark's avenue, Brooklyn. Clinger says he gave Van Tascher the money as security for a position as watchman, for which he was to receive $15 a week, It appears that although Van Tascher was ostensibly in the real estate business men, were fined $100 each in police court as president and manager of the Van Tascher Realty and Construction Company, he also advertised that he could arrange marriages. with millionaires. Among those who gave him fees amounting to hundreds of dollars and married the men he introduced them to are Mrs. Boris Hoffman, of No. 28 East Eighty-sixth street, and the wife of Dr. Paul Peters, of No. 83 Second

Mrs. Peters alleges that she and her husband gave Van Tascher nearly $2,000, and Mrs. Hoffman says she was swindled out of $800. According to the story which Mrs. Peters related yesterday to Assistant Dis-trict Attorney Krassel, she formerly lived in San Francisco, where she met Van Tascher. Her husband died, leaving her $5,000, and she came here about a year ago. "I've got a wealthy millionaire husband for you," Van Tascher informed Mrs. Peters one day. She felt interested and made further inquiries of him in regard to the gentleman. She said that Van Tascher told her that he was Dr. Paul Peters, an inventor and all round scientist, who was rolling in wealth. She met Peters and liked him so well that she marries him last Janyouse working on us, a joke?
